Hey. This is a letter from former CJ Alexander on 1349/5678. At the end he suggests new language, which will be introduced as substitutes next week at the hearings.

Apparently the question of state liability and people suing the state has come up.

We'd like to see if OFM would be willing to write a letter to the chair(s) saying they understand that question has come up and they believe a simple amendment (such as: "...an aggrieved party shall also recover FROM THE PARTY THAT IMPROPERLY USED THE PUBLIC RECORDS...") would address that concern.
