[REDACTED],

Thank you for emailing to express opposition to House Bill 1888 to help protect the privacy and safety of school employees and other public workers. While I am concerned about the scope and intent of the recent records requests from the Freedom Foundation, I appreciate hearing your input on the matter.

Sincerely,

Christine Rolfes

BILL: 1888 - Protecting employee information from public disclosure. (Against)

SUBJECT: Comment on Bill 1888

MESSAGE:

Transparency and accountability are essential for public officials. Don't weaken that by shielding birth dates. That's not necessary to protect against identity theft. Public officials need to stand for the common good not fall prey to efforts intended to support the goals of special interests.
